

Course Subject: Introduction to Investing

Course Objective: The objective of this course is for students to learn the importance of investing, and develop a general understanding of the stock market. Students will learn what they are able to buy on the stock market and two different investment strategies. They will also be able to analyze an investment portfolio throughout the course.

Logistics: Every Sunday evening from 3-4 pm EST from July 25 – 29 2022

Day 1:

- What is stock market?
- Importance of investing
- Introduction to an investment portfolio to be analyzed throughout the course

Day 2:

- Types of stocks: growth stocks and value stocks
 - Research project and presentation in the next class

Day 3:

- What are ETFs?
- Analysis of investment portfolio based on the acquired knowledge

Day 4:

- What are bonds and investment strategies?
- Dollar cost averaging and lump sum investing approaches and their advantages and disadvantages

Day 5:

- Concepts review
- Review game for a prize

Contact Us:

contact@nexgencoding.com